Community Improvement

The Story of TMC

- That's My Child is a local youth foundation founded in 2012 by Montgomery resident Charles Lee. Growing up in the rough, gang-riddled streets of Chicago inspired Mr. Lee to donate his time and effort into being a family-like support system and a “way out” for less fortunate teens facing the hardships of today.
- That's My Child mentors youth through the arts, workforce development and entrepreneurship and provides them with a safe place to develop talents and skills to become tomorrow's productive citizens, and toward ending hopelessness and generational poverty.
